MathCounts will be held virtually this year and rely on independent practice for the winter competition. There are a series of practice tests that will periodically be released by MathCounts and available to students who are signed up. This year, you will still compete for Parnassus, but only the individual competition will be held. There will be optional team competitions that will be hosted for fun if scholars are interested at the chapter competition. The practice tests will help simulate what the actual chapter/state competition will be like. Additionally, there is a resource within the online platform for “MathCounts Training” to practice. Below are noteworthy dates:

October 15th – Practice Competition 1 Released

November 15th – Practice Competition 2 Released

December 15th – Practice Competition 3 Released

January 15th – Last day to submit the school’s 15 person roster (if more than 15 are signed up, then Coach Sage will determine the roster)

January 22nd/23rd – Practice Competition 4 (only for 15 person roster)

February 5th/6th – Chapter Competition

February 25th (7:00 PM ET) – Chapter “Invitational” (if qualified from Chapter Competition)

March 25th (7:00 PM ET) – State Competition (if qualified from Chapter Invitational)

May 8th-11th – 2021 Raytheon Technologies MATHCOUNTS National Competition (Washington, DC)
