This year's 3L-4R play is The Legend of Sleepy Hollow! America's first great ghost story, Washington Irving's The Legend of Sleepy Hollow follows the quirky and superstitious antics of schoolmaster Ichabod Crane, who is haunted by the dreaded Headless Horseman. This imaginative adaptation stays true to the world that Irving created, adding just a bit of comedy to this classic American gothic tale.

All scholars interested in participating in the play should attend an informational meeting on Thursday, September 11 after school from 3:45-4:15pm in Room 1324. During the meeting, we will discuss various participation options, including acting roles large and small, stage crew, and set design. Scholars are not required to have an acting role to be involved in other aspects of the play.
